Lawrenceville ghost tour

Review of Lawrenceville Ghost Tours In October

●●●●● Reviewed October 26, 2019 via mobile

Did a Friday night tour - our guide was well versed on the local city history - he was funny should be doing comedy in tv or stage as his personality and skills will lend perfectly to to those venues

Time Well Spent

Review of: Lawrenceville Ghost Tours In October

We took our 11 year old grandson on this tour.

Our tour guide did a great job of storytelling and we particularly liked those stories that were directly related to specific areas downtown, like the old jail.

We did not think it was scary and plan on doing the cemetery tour.

Lawrenceville Ghost Tour

Review of: Lawrenceville Ghost Tours In October

Not spooky or scary like I thought, but still entertaining. DowntownLawrenceville is a cute area. Penny Prospect was an excellent tour guide. They don't tell you, but bring a couple dollars cash to tip at the end.

Interesting

So, my family and I definitely weren't expecting this tour to be theatrical. The guide acted and spoke with an accent the entire time, not to mention even sang at one point. It made the stories seem very unreal due to the fact she was acting them out so much and throwing in obvious embellishments. The tour went to some pretty cool spots, but could've visited even more if so much time wasn't spent acting per each spot. It was also a little weird to be asked to tip at the end. Other than those things, it was a fun Halloween thing to do and we did get to see inside an old jail. Would recommend if you're nearby Lawrenceville and want to learn a little about it.

The Best Ghost Tour in Georgia

My husband and I always go to a ghost tour before Halloween. The Lawrenceville tour is far the best we have ever been to. They create an amazing atmosphere, interesting, memorable.

Got Teens? A Ghost Tour is a Great Outing for Summer Evenings!

A novel & spooky adventure- your kids won't complain about being "bored", especially the younger teens.

Our guide was adorable & charming! She stayed in character & kept us entertained throughout the whole tour.

Choose a cool, clear night & wear comfortable walking shoes for optimum enjoyment.

FYI: We ate dinner at the Mexican Restaurant right across from the Tour's Meeting Place. It was one of the WORST restaurants we've ever been to - I forgot the name, but it was on a corner facing the main street.
